

An Unforgettable European Wine Trip!

Italian Piedmont Wine Tour 2018

A 5-night getaway to the heart of northwest Italy's Piedmont that will immerse guests in the splendor of the region's profound wines, ancient cities, and sumptuous cuisine, all at the peak of truffle season.

Unforgettable memories and some of the world's greatest wines await! Italy's Piedmont region, home to the famous Alba white truffle, is most famous for its boutique wines and gastronomy. Travelers from all over the world come for the outstanding food, Cult wines, Medieval castles and hamlets, and romantic, vineyard-covered hills. We'll spend 5 nights at the *Hotel Casa Pavesi, an elegantly restored ancient home at the foot of Grinzane Cavour Castle, not far from Alba. Hi-lights will include a private tour of the ancient city of Turin, participation in a genuine truffle hunt with a local Trifalu (truffle hunter), and the startling beauty of the Langhe countryside painted with amazing colors. Most of all, you'll enjoy exclusive tours and tastings with many of the region's top wine estates with renowned local wine guide and Piedmont expert Silvia Aprato.
